

sv National Association of Insurance and Financial Advisors

For Immediate Release

September 20th 2016

Brent Jones receives the Insurance and Financial Service Industry's Prestigious Quality Service Award

Washington D.C. –

Brent Jones is the Principal of JONES FINANCIAL DESIGN an Insurance and Financial Service Agency in the Greater Denver Area.

Congratulations to BRENT JONES in achieving the NAIFA National Quality Award for 2016. “The NAIFA Quality Award is recognition for MR. JONES’ commitment to excellence in the service to his clients, the industry, and the pursuit of education and training, and adherence to NAIFA’s Code of Ethics” Noted NAIFA National.

It is a mark of distinction to be recognized by colleagues, clients, and the company’s one works with. “NAIFA and the Insurance and Financial Service industry congratulate MR. JONES and, all NAIFA members who display proudly the mark of NAIFA & Industry Quality”.

This marks the seventh consecutive time Mr. Jones has received this award and ninth overall during his 12 year career.

Founded in 1890 as the National Association of Life Underwriters, NAIFA is comprised of 850 state and local associations and represents the business interests of 75,000 life and health insurance agents and financial advisors nationwide. Many if NAIFA’s members are NASD-licensed registered representatives or registered investment advisors. Benefits of membership include legislative and regulatory representation, education, and training, and networking opportunities. For more information